At the trial for assault to kill, the attorneys for the defense sought to exclude from the jury all talesmen who were prejudiced against their client on account of the provious shooting. Three jurors who confessed a slight prejudice on this account were accepted and according to today's decision this fact entitles the defendant to a new trial.

CHANGE URGED IN LAW. HOMICIDE TOO EASY.

[ASSOCIATED PRIESS DAY REPORT.]
SALT LAKE (Utah) Dec. 20.—The
"unwritten law" is better unwritten than written in the opinion of the Atjorney-General of Utah. This is one of the few States in which an offense against chastity is legal justification for homicide. In his blennial report to the Governor submitted yesterday, Atty.-Gen. Barnes recommends that the justification be repealed. He takes the ground that it is useless and that many guilty men escape under its provisions. The law was passed in the early Territorial days and has never been altered.

AMATEUR FURNISHES FUN.

The comedy stunt of the show was pulled off at dusk and only a small number of the spectators were on hand to endoy it. E. R. Smith, one of the amateur aviators, hauled out his little monoplane after all the big bugs has had their fling and prepared to make an ascent. His craft is a tiny-thing. It looks like a moth that has been ascepted. The machine coa as soon about the award of dust arcse and the noise that came from within the 'veil sounded like a whirty-rig. It is proving a hard matter after all for some machines to stand up under the wind at Aviation Field, even though great improvements have been made in flying since last winter. Curtiss machines have met with three accidents: Latham smashed his Antoinette: Glenn Martin, Jack Cannon, J. J. Slavin, and C. H. Day, amateurs, have had their accidents, large-ly because of unfamiliarity with the wind currents. The Wrights and Radley have escaped unscathed. So far as is known, the Wrights, Curtiss and Cannon are the only ones in this country to cut off the head, and Cannon has gone a step farther and sheared off all the front end. chine is built for choppy weather and rides as easily in a gale as in calm weather. Radley's Bieriot can take little chances with a bad wind, but because of its peculiar build, which offers little resistance, and its great speed, it is able to fly smoothly. Radley's great generalship has done much to keep him from harm.	sufficiently to make another complete lap of the course last night, thereby winning the prizes for two days for California machines. HARD TO LAND.

Two of the accidents to the Curtiss machines were made in landing as the wind caught the biplanes and drove them onto dangerous ground. The first Beachey accident was caused by a gust of wind throwing up the tail of the machine and thus forcing the elevator into the wind just as Beachey was making a turn.

The series of accidents has caused the aviators to use more caution, and it is almost impossible to make arrangements for racing from a standing start or at intervals. The aviators want to get away in time trials only.

At least this is true of James Radley, driving the Bleirot, which has proven to be the fastest aeroplane on the ground. Radley is willing to race but advises the committee not to ask it as it would likely end in a smash-up of his machine and thus put it out of the remaining days of the meet.

Radley says that as he would have to start as scratch man he would have to start as Pennsylvania Woman Returns From Europe to Find Beautiful Home Ruined by Bursting of Water Fipes.

18Y DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES!

ALLENTOWN (Pa.) Dec. 30.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] When Mrs. Elimbeth A. Powell, who left for a tour of Europe last summer, returned yesterday she found she had forgotten to shut off her water pipes on leaving. They had frozen and then burst and instead of the beautiful home she last the cellar was full of water, there was skating in every room, the cellings had fallen down and the papering of the house was all soaked off. From all indications the pipes burst a month aspand ever since the property has been flooded. The home, valued at about $6000, is practically ruined.

REHEARING IS DENIED. Attorney W. J. Danford, now under sentence from the Superior Court to five years in the State pentiontiary for the forgery of a telegram, was yesterday denied a rehearing by the Supreme Court of California. Nothing dismayed by the fact that his appeal has been denied by both the District Court of Appeal and the Supreme Court, the disharred attorney announces that he will forthwith carry the case to the Supreme Court of the United States on a technical writ of error. The telegram in question is one whereby Danford is alleged to have attempted to defraud a Telluride man, C. J. O'Kesta, out of 1000 several months ago.

Their Turn to Discharge.

REDONDO BEACH, Dec. 30.—The last days of the present month have been especially marked by a heavy increase in the volume of business transacted over the wharves of this port. Both sides of all the wharves have been full and vessels at anchor have been awaiting their turn at the docks in order to discharge their cargoes. Two large shipments of heavy timbers for the Santa Fe system arrived this week from Muroran and Eagle Harbor, one of these the schooner Luzon having been in the stream four days awaiting dock room.

The annual business meeting of the Methodist Sunday-school was held at the church last night. The following officers were chosen: J. F. Lerch, superintendent; Mrs. F. C. Quintaval and L. B. Davison, assistant superintendententent, and Mrs. Charles Williams, assistant in that department.

Marshall Stanchfield has succeeded in locating relatives of the aged veteran, Jacob Sloenker of Oakland, who was found wandering the streets yesterday, suffering with a partial paralytic stroke. Dr. L. E. Kelly, a relative, arrived today and will attend to the man's removal as soon as his condition permits.

Aviation and Other Features to Mark the Completion and Opening of Electric Railway Connecting With Upland, Ontario and Clare-

POMONA, Dec. 30.—Through the joint efforts of the Pomona Business Men's Association and the Pomona Board of Trade a big celebration of Greater Pomona" Day is being arranged for January 7, which will signalize the completion and opening of the new electric railway connecting Upland, Ontario and Claremont with this city. Aviation is one of the chief attractions arranged.

In addition to the airship demonstrations here there will be a captive balloon to vary the programme, a baby show and band concerts. The railroads and the electric road will offer special rates and a large attendance is expected from all parts of Pomona Valley.

The opening of the valley electric road will mark a new era here. The event has been anticipated for months. As long ago as when Dr. Cyrus Grandison Baldwin was first president of the people have been dreaming of electric connection, with the college town. The railway will be of Immense mutual advantage to both Claremont and Pomona, as well as to Upland and Ontario.

Brash Youth Tries to "Mash" East Side Young Lady Over the Telephone and Sugrests a Date.

One of the public service corporations has a "masher" in its employ. He is a very bold young man, and it the father of a certain indignant East Side young lady encounters him, he will fake some of the boldness out of him.

This chipper youth called at an East Side house recently, with reference to business connected with the company and seems to have been attracted by the young lady who attended to the pose for which she claims that she was destined, she lost no time in applying for a divorce, which was granted last August, the decree being an interlocutory one.

The San Francisco woman, whose trade, Johnson immediately came South and, within a very short time, became engaged to Miss Vivian Dodge, a popular Long Béach girl, Il years of age. They were married at the sesside town on September 28, the bride being kept in ignorance of the alleged past of her husband.

They removed to El Paso, and Johnson obtained a place as a bartender in Juarez, unconscious of the Nemesis which was close on his trail. The publication in the newspapers of the Johnson-Dodge marriage license came to the eyes of the San Francisco woman and she proceeded to instant action. In it she has apparently been actuated partly by a feeling of the bitterset revengefulness and partly through a desire to spare another woman the fate that she says she suffered at the hands of Johnson.

At the time of his arrest, on description furnished by the woman who claims to have been married to him it Seattle, Johnson announced that he would fight extradition to the last ditch. The necessary papers and afficient in making application for extradition were prepared yesterday by Deputy Dist. Atty. Keyes and will probably be forwarded to the Governor today. To secure additional affidavits from the former Miss Gill, an officer from the sheriff's office will be sent to San Francisco today.

Singers Prom Hawaii, Shunted Prom One Boarding House to Another, Bewaii Cold Reception in Sunshine.

LOST: One band of Hawaiian singers humbering seven. Dressed in white plantation suits of linen and carrying musical instruments. The above lost notice could have been published yesterday by the management of the Alexandris Hotel, when it lost track of its new band of seven been published yesterday by the management of the Alexandria Hotel, when it lost track of its new band of seven Hawaiian singers freshly imported from the sugar plantations of Hawaii. The singers, in simple garb of white, reported in the lobby of the Alexandria yesterday morning, bright and early. They were just off the Coaster, from San Francisco. They were shooed out hurriedly and told to go elsewhere until they were wanted at the New Year's celebration tonight in the Mission Indian Grill. They went, and shortly afterwards the management of the hotel which was handling the subscription dance at Goldberg's last night, decided that it could utilize the Hawaiians at the reception.

A search was instituted which lasted from yesterday at noon until almost midnight before the stray hand was located in a boarding-house near Los Angeles street.

The singers had wandered from apartment-house to apartment-house were not already filled to repletion, they were turned away on account of their color. Often they were finally found they were seated mournfully in a little room bewailing the fate that had brought them from sunshiny Hawaii. They were routed out and rushed by automobile to the reception, where they gave mournful vent to their outraged feelings.

TERIAN CHURCH.

"Since earliest childhood we have seen it—that circle of golden light, the emblem of holiness, gleaming above the head of apostle or saint, and so used have we become to it as a sign of these qualities that it, never occurs even to the painter himself who daily makes use of it to inquire how it ever to the painter himself who daily makes use of it to inquire how it ever to the painter himself who daily makes use of it to inquire how it ever to the painter in Faris that I got my information. This was the explanation as he gave it to me oper a bottle of my own choesing—and paying:

"The first subjects to feel the remainsance were architecture and sculpture, and this several generations before the days of Cimabus and Giotto, the earliest of the painters. Of these subjects architecture came first, as is still evidenced in the magnificent ruins of cathedrals scattered over expression to his art in the images of the saints and other holy characters. The commonst form of this express were the sculptor. He gave expression to his art in the images of the saints and other holy characters. The commonst form of this express when the sculptor is a soin was life-sized images of the saints, which were sat in solemn row about the outside of the enurches and cathedrals immediately under the cathedrals immediately and the cathedrals immediately under the cathedrals immediately and
